

“We are happy to say that in less than six weeks, we were in our new home and it is all thanks to Laura’s dedication to us. She really listened, her commitment to us was reflected in her professionalism, timely communication and service to us and that made all of the difference. She was very knowledgeable and there were no questions or concerns that she was unwilling or unable to address. She has so much energy and goes above and beyond what a Realtor should do. She restored our confidence in the home buying process and I have since recommended her to anyone interested in buying or selling a home.”

-Maxine and Mustafa, Washington, D.C, September 2008