

“As a first time home buyer the entire process was very daunting to us, however Laura made it very easy. She made us feel very comfortable from the start and never made us feel like any of our questions were “dumb questions”. I would absolutely refer her to any of our friends and family in the area searching for a home.”

- Nick, Washington, D.C., August 2009